LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (January 24, 2023) – The Communications Group, a full-service marketing and public relations firm based in Little Rock, announces the selection of Warren native Braden Jones, a junior at Arkansas Tech University \(ATU\), to join the firm this spring for its CGXperience.

ComGroup’s CGXperience is a paid internship program which provides a unique learning experience tailored to the interests of each selected intern. Jones’s focus will be on event management and agency promotion.

“Braden’s varied interests and passion for agriculture and public relations make him a great fit for the agency and our internship program,” said Lisa Van Hook, agency principal and Director of Client Services. His academic experience will enhance his internship and provide a new perspective for our agency.”

Jones is expected to graduate in May 2024 with a bachelor’s degree in journalism with an emphasis in public relations from ATU. He currently serves as chapter president of ATU’s Public Relations Student Society of America.
