Communications Group Hires Lemons as Public Relations Intern

University of Central Arkansas senior Jacie Lemons of Benton joins ComGroup as PR intern.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (February 19, 2024) – The Communications Group (ComGroup), Arkansas’s premier marketing and public relations firm, announces the selection of Benton native Jacie Lemons, a senior at the University of Central Arkansas, to join the firm this spring for its CGXperience.

ComGroup’s CGXperience is a paid internship program that provides a unique and immersive learning experience tailored to the interests and talents of each selected intern. Lemons’ project will focus on cultivating purpose-driven office cultures by developing philanthropic initiatives that support Corporate Social Responsibility goals.

“This is not your typical internship. The CGXperience is an entirely unique opportunity,” said Lisa Van Hook, APR, agency principal. “Our internship program offers aspiring communications professionals like Jacie an immersive, one-of-a-kind experience, allowing them to work alongside our award-winning PR team in serving internationally known brands and learning from our accredited PR practitioners.”

Lemons is expected to graduate in May 2024 with a bachelor’s degree in public relations. She is a graduate of Bryant High School.
