COMMUNICATIONS GROUP HIRES HAMMOND AS PR INTERN

University of Arkansas senior Claire Hammond (pictured) of Little Rock joins ComGroup as PR intern.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (June 24, 2024) – The Communications Group (ComGroup), Arkansas’s premier marketing and public relations firm, announces the selection of Little Rock native Claire Hammond, a senior at the University of Arkansas, to join the firm this summer for its CGXperience.

ComGroup’s CGXperience is a paid internship program that provides a unique and immersive learning experience tailored to the interests and talents of each selected intern. Hammond’s internship experience will focus on creating internal protocols for agency promotion and further honing her talent for writing.

“The CGXperience is an unparalleled internship opportunity for aspiring communications professionals like Claire,” said Lisa Van Hook, APR, agency principal. “While working alongside our award-winning PR team serving internationally known brands, our CGX interns gain valuable knowledge and experiences that will serve them in their future communications careers.”

Hammond is projected to graduate in May 2025 with a bachelor’s degree in communications. She is a graduate of Little Rock Central High School.
